Wisconsin's Financial Outlook Continues to Improve

On Tuesday, the co-chairs of the budget-writing Joint Committee on Finance, Senator Alberta Darling (R-River Hills) and Representative John Nygren (R-Marinette), released the following statement regarding the continued improvement of the state's bottom line:

"Wisconsin's fiscal climate continues to improve. Thanks to our state's robust economy, our revenue outlook looks positive.

These numbers further discredit doomsday scenarios from Democrats who are rooting against Wisconsin's economic comeback.

Reducing the tax burden, reforming the tax code and holding the line on property taxes for the citizens of Wisconsin continue to be the keys to growing jobs and fueling the economy.

Thanks to Republican reforms, Wisconsin ranks fourth in the Midwest in private sector job creation and growth, and we currently rank fifth in the nation in manufacturing jobs. Also, thanks to our reforms last session; the average family will have an extra $322 to spend.

The numbers prove that Wisconsin is heading in the right direction."
